Our Baby.

At our house, at home, we've a sweet little baby,
As fat as a toad in the fall;
And for mischief, fun, music, or whatever it may be,
Of brats, he's the general of all!
With cheeks like two roses,
The prettiest of noses,
Endured in our Moses,
By every fond tie;
In fair and foul weather,
He serves as a tether,
To bind us together—
My Betsy and I.

From morning, full blossom, till night draws her curtain,
His means for employment never fail;
And though hushed by his gabbles, of music we're certain,
When he drags the old cat by the tail,
Now calling, and howling,
And calling, and howling,
And mauling, and scuffling,
At work and at play;
In the dish-water paddling,
Or Jowler's back-saddling,
Or about fiddle-faddling,
He passes the day.

Though his sixth month is ended this present September,
He's equal to any at twelve;
At four, he could "put on" as well, I remember,
As the best "shoulder-striker" alive;

In consideration
Of his qualification,
I'm in contempt
Of placing him where
All the Mrs. Danes,
And all the Mrs. Plunkins
Will say he's "some punkin!"—
And that is—"Tun Fan."

There's naught can escape his minutest inspection,
Displayed on the top-seller's boards;
And he helps himself, too, without fear of detection,
To the nicest of the pantry affords.

He's just in condition
To meet competition,
At the grand exhibition,
The roguish with two eyes—
There's one thing—depend on't;
To make a quick end on't,
He can by hand out—
He sure takes the prize.

VARIETY.

Truth is worthless until exemplified in conduct.
Speaking without thinking is shooting without taking aim.

The man who thinks laboriously will express himself concisely.

In trifles, infinitely clearer than in great deeds, actual character is displayed.

If we get knowledge into our minds edgewise, it will soon find room to turn.

From one upright, genuine resolve, and it will up-lift into higher air your whole being.

Owls look wiser than eagles, and many a sheepskin passes for a chamois.

To be deprived of a person we love is a happiness in comparison of living with one we hate.

Any one may do a casual act of good nature, but a continuation of them shows it is a part of the temperament.

We should be cautious how we indulge in the feelings of a virtuous indignation. It is the handsome brother of anger and hatred.

FRIEND—one who will tell you of your faults and follies in prosperity, and assist you with his hands and heart in adversity.

If a man were to set out calling everything by its right name, he would be knocked down before he got to the corner of the street.

ANTIQUARY—too often a collector of valuables that are worth nothing, and a recollector of all that Time has been glad to forget.

So quickly sometimes has the wheel turned round, that many a man has lived to enjoy the benefit of that charity which his own piety projected.

Let us so order our conversation in the world that we may live when we are dead in the affections of the best, and leave an honorable testimony in the consciences of the worst.

Why are German Theologians like cat-fish? Do you give it up? Because they are continually wriggling about "the diet of worms."

There is a man in Connecticut who has such a hatred for anything like monarchy, that he won't wear a crown on his hat!

Socrates rightly said of contentment, opposing it to the riches of fortune and opinion, that it is the wealth of nature; for it gives everything that we want and really need.

It is a singular fact that women cannot look from a precipice of any magnitude without becoming dizzy. But, what is still more singular, the dizziness departs the very moment somebody puts his arms around her waist to "keep her from falling." Queer, isn't it?

Childhood is like a mirror, catching and reflecting images around it. Remember that an impious, profane or vulgar thought may operate upon your heart like a careless spray of water thrown upon polished steel, staining it with rust that no after efforts can efface.

The farmer whose pigs were so lean that it took two of them to make a shadow, has been beaten by another, who had several so lean that they would crawl out through the cracks in their pen. He finally stopped that "by tying knots in their tails."

AN INVENTION called only. The scientific American says it costs $3,000,000 to husk the corn grown in the United States, and that a machine for husking would make the fortune of the inventor. But what is to become of the merry husking parties, when machinery is introduced? All the fun and romance of the thing will be gone.

The N. Y. Dutchman publishes the following for the benefit of those who are disposed to commit suicide on rainy days:

"For a low spirit we recommend a clear conscience, fresh air, lots of exercise and a taste for the state." And it came to pass when the evil spirit was in Saul, that David took a harp and played with his hands, so Saul was refreshed and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him. In treating diseases of the mind, music is not sufficiently valued. In raising the heart above despair an old violin is worth two doctors and two apothecary shops."

Women endure pain, poverty and the severest misfortune with more fortitude than men, but melt at the first harsh word from those that they love. With her own heart open before her, no true mother can speak harshly to her child—the tone would rend the little tenders of affection that are clinging to her, and, like vines in spring ruthlessly cut, they might bleed with a fatal hindrance to health.

FOREIGN SUMMARY.

Mr. Buchanan's nomination for the Presidency had excited some uneasy feeling in consequence of the doctrines published in the Ostend manifesto and the reiteration of the Monroe doctrine in the Cincinnati platform. The people (working classes) were all adverse to war, and peace addresses to the citizens of the United States were circulated and signed in almost every city of the United Kingdom. Advice from Hamburg state that, owing to the mediation of Russia, our government consents to pay the Sound dues till June, 1857. The question of a reversion for France, in the event of the Emperor's death, has been submitted in form to the Senate. The injury done to the crops by the late inundations is estimated at 150,000,000, of which 30,000,000 are referable to the mulberry trees for silkworms. In that amount are not included the damage done to houses, the loss in cattle, utensils, or the injury to railroads. Prince Napoleon had arrived in Edinburgh and visited Abbotsford, and the scenes made memorable by the genius of Sir Walter Scott. Count George Esterhazy, Austrian Minister to Prussia, had died in Berlin. A despatch from Madrid announces that the Queen of Spain had suffered from a miscarriage. Her Majesty had been bled, and was very unwell. Troops from the East were pouring into France and England. Ten English regiments and 14,000 French remained in the Crimea for embarkation, and nearly the same number were in Constantinople. The French police had been withdrawn from Peru, and the consequence was that considerable disorder in the streets followed. Ismael City was being levelled by the Russians. The czar had formed a new Cabinet with the following personages:—Foreign Affairs, Prince Gortschakoff; Messrs. de Tolstoi and Osten-Sacken, assistants; Home Department, Prince Sergius Lanisko &c., &c.

A substantial English cable connecting Martha's Vineyard with Boston, has been successfully laid by the Cape Cod Telegraph Company, and the line is now in good working order, connecting at Boston with the lines of the American Telegraph.

Mr. Bayard Taylor has sailed for Europe to spend two or three years in the Scandinavian countries and Russia, and return home "across Northern Asia, Siberia and Manchouria, to the mouth of the Amoor, where he will take ship for Oregon or California, and perhaps visit the Sandwich Islands. During his absence he will correspond with the Tribune. Things are tolerably quiet in Kansas. The Free State Legislature, which convened at Topeka, on the 4th of July, according to adjournment, was "dispersed" by Col. Sumner of the U. S. Army and a force of 200 troops, after the manner of Oliver Cromwell. The Colonel, however, forgot to lock up the Parliament House and take away "the mace," as others did; and consequently, as soon as he galloped out of town, the Legislature convened again and went at it. The New York papers severely have published highly dramatic accounts of the evening. Gen. Smith has since arrived in the Territory, and taken the chief command of the army.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.—The special Pacific Railroad Committee have agreed upon a bill, eleven members concurring, and Gen. Denver, the chairman, will report it on Monday, if he gets the floor. Three roads are provided for—one to be built north of the forty-fourth degree of north latitude, by the Northern Atlantic and Pacific railroad company, of which Alexander Ramsey is President; one between the 34th and 44th parallels, to be constructed by an association of all the roads now chartered and running westward through Iowa and Missouri, the junction to be formed near Fort Kearney, and the single trunk to run to the navigable waters of the Pacific, in California; and the Southern road is awarded to the Southern Atlantic and Pacific railroad, of which T. Butler King is President—a new company, associated with the Atlantic and Pacific railroad company, of California, the Texas Western railroad company, and the Vicksburg and Shreveport company. This line runs from the Mississippi, at some point south of the 38th degree, and runs to San Francisco, with a branch to San Diego, and with a grant of forty sections of land to the mile.

No grant is made for that portion of the road east of the western boundary of Texas. The northern road receives forty sections from points of sale, and the other hundred miles. The middle road receives thirty sections until it reaches California, then ten sections to its western terminus. The provisions for mail pay are liberal.

Telegraph lines are provided for on each road. The report of the committee will not be long, but clear and satisfactory. The bill will be put through without delay.

FAST PRESSES IN THE UNITED STATES AND EUROPE.—I learn from the Messrs. Hoe, that the six-cylinder press shipped by them to Europe, by the Ericsson, was for Lloyd's Weekly Newspaper, London, and not for the Times, as has been stated. The only mammoth cylinder press in Europe, except the one above, is a four-cylinder, used by La Patrie, a Paris newspaper, and has been run by them with great acceptance for several years.

The three largest presses in this country are owned by the Philadelphia Ledger and New-York Sun. They are eight-cylinder—the only ones of the kind ever constructed, and of them only one, published, one thousand sheets an hour! The Ledger owns two of these presses, and the Sun one. The latter journal has, besides, a four-cylinder press, by which means, with its eight-cylinder, it can strike off thirty-thousand sheets an hour. The immense circulation of the Ledger, however, (the largest of any daily paper in the world,) would admit of the employment of nothing but the fastest presses that could be built, and hence an order was given to the indefatigable Brothers Hoe, who soon exhibited to astonished newspaperdom their beautiful and unmatched eight-cylinder, or their "Last Fast Press."

The number of six-cylinder presses in the United States is four; one of these is used by the New-York Herald, Tribune and Times, and the fourth by the Boston Journal. The Herald has also in use two four-cylinders, and the Times and Tribune each one.

There are likewise eleven other four-cylinder presses in this country, which are owned as follows: New-York Commercial Advertiser, Evening Post, Sunday Dispatch, Staats Zeitung, Boston Transcript, Times and Traveler; Philadelphia Bulletin and Cincinnati Commercial each one, and the Baltimore Sun two.

The Messrs. Hoe are also now engaged in building two other four-cylinders—one for the Boston Herald, and the other for the Philadelphia Sunday Dispatch. The price of a four-cylinder is $12,500; a six-cylinder $18,000; and an eight-cylinder $20,000. The former is capable of printing ten thousand impressions an hour, the six-cylinder fifteen thousand, and the eight-cylinder twenty thousand. It must be a source of great gratification to the Messrs. Hoe, that from each of the journals which they have furnished with their fast presses they have received the welcome assurance that their unwearied labors have been crowned with the most perfect success, and that the presses furnished have, in every instance, given the most unbounded satisfaction.—Cor. N. O. Picayune.

The Governor of North Carolina has ordered a new election for the 28th inst., and Messrs. Brooks and Keitt will both, undoubtedly, be sent back to Congress this session, without opposition.

Martin Koszta, the Hungarian, has purchased a farm on the Modza river, Texas, for which he paid $9,000.
